Potson in the blood is apt to show itself in the spring, and nature should by all means be assisted in throwing it off. Swift's specific does this effectively. It is a purely vegetable, non-poisonous remody, which helps nature to force all the poison or faint out.

helps nature to force all the poison or faint out through the pores of the skin.

Mr. Robert A. Easley, of Dicks in, Teun. writes, under date March 10, 1884; "I had chills and fever, followed by theomatism, for three years, so that I was not able to attend to my business; had tried almost every kind of medicine and found no relief. A fr.-end recommended Swift's typerite. I tried one bottle, and my health began to improve. I continued until I had raten six bottles, and it has set me on my feet, as sound and well as ever, I recommend it to all similarly afflicted.

Letters from twenty-three (23) of the leading result druggists of Atlanta say, under date March 24, 1864; "We sell more of twist's beeting than any other one remedy, and three to tea times as much as any other blood-medicine. We sell it to all classes, and many of the best families are it as a general health tonic."
